2022 African Peacebuilding Network Fellowship Competitions

Individual Research Fellowship

APN Individual Research Fellowships (IRF) support up to six months of field-based research that contributes to knowledge production and policies shaping peacebuilding in Africa. Fellowship awards are up to $15,000, with up to 18 awards provided each year. Fellows receive mentorship and attend two training workshops to support their fieldwork and dissemination of research findings.

Collaborative Working Group Fellowship

The Collaborative Working Group (CWG) Research Fellowship provides up to $60,000 to support a team of researchers and practitioners on a collaborative and collectively designed research project focused on security, development, and peacebuilding in Africa. The fellowship duration is 18 months, with one fellowship awarded every two years.
