

Danielle Allen on Political Equality

Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College, New York City

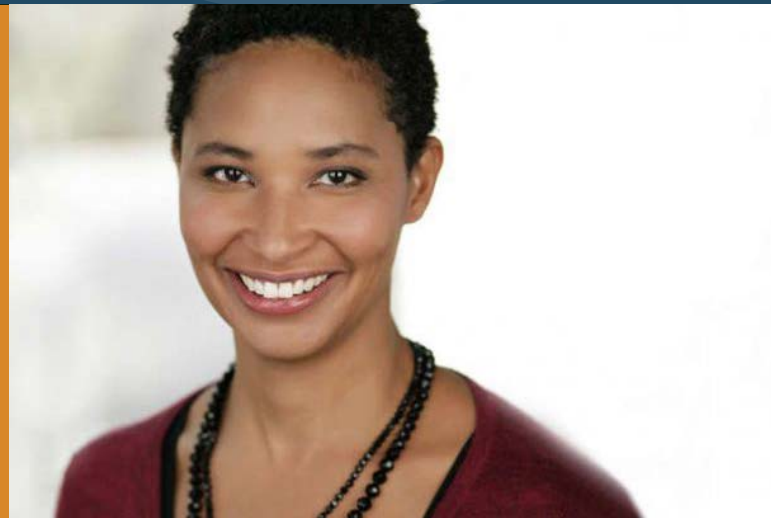

Thursday, November 16
5:30pm - 7:00pm

Response from:
Jeremy Waldron,
University Professor,
New York University
School of Law

Reception and book signing to follow.

TO RSVP

For more information and to RSVP, visit Roosevelt House

ABOUT DANIELLE ALLEN

Allen is Director of the Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics and James Bryant Conant University Professor at Harvard University and the Social Science Research Council's 2017 Democracy Fellow. Her most recent books include Cuz: The Life and Times of Michael A. (2017) and Education and Equality (2016). Allen's new work on political equality reimagines theories of justice, re-considering liberalism as aspiring to freedom from domination rather than freedom as autonomy.

