

APN COLLABORATIVE WORKING GROUP FELLOWSHIP

The APN Collaborative Working Group Research Fellowship (CWG) is an initiative and key complement to the field-based and networking components of the APN's programming. This fellowship responds to the need for deep collaboration and engagement of researchers and practitioners on peacebuilding challenges in Africa.

Project Title: Co-creating Peace: Trust-Building Mechanisms and Strategies for Social Harmony in South Africa, Kenya and Uganda

Nicolette Roman | University of Cape Town, South Africa (Team Leader)

Professor Nicolette Roman holds a PhD in Psychology, rated as an Established Researcher and registered as a Psychometrist. She currently holds the positions of Senior Professor, South African Research Chair (SARChI) in the Development of Human Capabilities and Social Cohesion through the Family, Founder and Director of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies of Children, Families and Society (CISCFS), in the Faculty of Community and Health Sciences, at the University of the Western Cape. She is the principal investigator for growing the niche area of Global Citizenship Education in Early Childhood

Development at the University of the Western Cape.

Members of this year's Collaborative Working Group include:

- Nicolette Roman | University of Western Cape, South Africa (Team Leader)
- Joshua Mugumbwa | Makerere University, Uganda
- Moses Mutua Mutiso | Moi University, Kenya
- Anja Human-Hendricks | University of Western Cape, South Africa
- Edna Masita | Moi University, Kenya
- Proscovia Nalwadda | Makerere University, Uganda